

A direct route for earning a degree locally or abroad through the American Degree Transfer Program

The American Degree Transfer Program (ADTP) was first offered at INTEC Education College in 1982, and has since seen more than 23,000 students successfully transfer to universities in countries like the United States, Australia, New Zealand, and Canada. The flexible nature of the programme allows students who have sat for the SPM/ICGSE/UEC to spend 1 or 2 years with us before furthering their studies at universities of their choice.

DO I QUALIFY TO APPLY?

Students who have successfully completed the SPM/IGSCE/UEC/equivalent qualification may apply. More details are available on the INTEC Education College website.
